

BATTLE OF JERICHO

Trad., with new verse by Lew Toulmin, 11/2020; strum: DUDU

CHORUS:

[Am] Joshua fit the battle of Jericho, [E] Jericho, [Am] Jericho
Joshua fit the battle of Jericho,
And the [E] walls came tumblin' [Am] down.

[Am] You can talk about your kings of Gideon, or any man of long ago
There's none like good ol' Joshua, at the [E] battle of [Am] Jericho! CHORUS

[Am] Up to the walls of Jericho, they marched with spear in hand
"Go blow those ram horns," Joshua cried, "For the [E] battle is in my [Am] hand!" CHORUS

[Am] They tell me, Lord, that Joshua's spear, was well nigh twelve feet high
Oh his hip he had a double-edged sword, and the [E] battle was in his [Am] eye! CHORUS

[Am] Then the lamb ram horns began to blow, and the trumpets began to sound
Old Joshua commanded the children to shout, and the walls [E] came tumblin' [Am] down!
